THE PEOPLE CENTRIC SOLUTIONS COMPANY

The Talent Acquisition division is focused on providing you with the right people for your staffing needs; we offer several flexible options to help your organization efficiently meet its talent needs.

Executive Level Retained Search

The ideal approach for organizations that have specialized needs for Executive Level or Specialized Professionals. We accommodate all searches in a professional and consultative manner tailored to meet unique requirements.

Contingent Search

Often referred to as Permanent or Direct, Contingent Search is a solid approach for Entry and Mid Level Executives and Skilled Professional Searches.

Staff Augmentation

A flexible approach we recommend to organizations with a short term or project based need. Referred to commonly as contract staffing, we provide highly skilled professionals on a temporary basis.

Recruitment Process Outsourcing

Our team can seamlessly become or blend into any organizations recruitment function for all or specific jobs. With flexible services that manage the entire recruiting and hiring process including sourcing, screening, managing the interview process through on-boarding of the new hire all under your organizational policies and procedures.

We offer professional results and quality in a cost effective package.

Contract Recruitment

An attractive option for organizations that expect or have a sudden increase in hiring demand and require experienced specialized help.

Our contract recruiters have proven track records and experience finding talent in many industries. With the flexibility to be on site or remote they can immediately blend in as a cohesive extension of your team or be your team.

Advisors and Speakers

Every organization requires expert advice and guidance as they solve problems, grow and motivate customers and employees. Through our far reaching and diverse relationships with industry leaders and visionaries, professional athletes and celebrities we can provide experts for a strategy and advisement session, speaking engagement or marketing event.

Who We Are

We have been focused on helping clients meet their people needs since 2001.

Our team features balanced and proven leadership that has held senior positions with global leaders in many industries, top tier consulting firms and many well known startups.

Our goal is to be a trusted advisor and the company you go to when results count.
